SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. All responsibility for the Yugoslav foreign trade is in the hands of the Ministry of Foreign Trade which is divided into the following:
 - General Directorate for Exports
 - General Directorate for Imports
 - General Directorate for Transportation and Public Works.
2. Each of these General Directorates is, in turn, divided into two subordinate sections
 - Under Directorate for Coordination (import - export - transportation)
 - Under Directorate for Planning
3. Because the Ministry of Foreign Trade is a unit of the central government, there are representatives in the governments of the federal republics. Export and imports are controlled by certain commercial enterprises which themselves are under State control. Each has its definite duties. The following are the commercial enterprises:
 - a. Centralso Prometno A.D., (Central Commercial Society): Central Society of shareholders, Belgrade, Decanska Ulica 35. It deals with export and imports for all agricultural products (cereals, livestock, meat, eggs, tobacco, et cetera).
 - b. Jugodrvno A.D., Society of Yugoslav shareholders for commerce of timber, Belgrade, Dositejeva Ulica 7. Deals in export of wood and cement (hard woods, wood for fuel, cellulose, construction material, wood derivatives, wood charcoal, et cetera).
 - c. Jugometal A.D., Society of Yugoslav shareholders for metal trade, Belgrade. Deals in exports of all types of metal (Bor mines, Trepca, et cetera) and of charcoal.
 - d. Jugotekstil A.D., Society of Yugoslav shareholders in textile; Belgrade, Ulica Sedmi Juli 9. Imports and exports all types of textiles.
 - e. Jugoauto A.D., Society of Yugoslav shareholders for automobiles;
